⁵The total number is an estimated figure gathered from sources within each state.

⁶Numbers are estimates arrived at by adjusting figures given in The U.S. Census of Governments, Vol. 6, Popularly Elected Officials of State and Local Governments (Washington, D.C.: Government Printing Office, 1967) p.7. They reflect the changes in total numbers of governing bodies as shown in The U.S. Census of Governments, Vol. 1, Governmental Organization (Washington, D.C.: Government Printing Office, 1972) p.1. A breakdown of figures for the individual totals of townships, mayors, and city councils was unavailable.

This chart is current for October, 1975. For information about results of November, 1975 State Executive and State Legislative races in Kentucky, Mississippi, New Jersey and Virginia please refer to the table of contents.

²At the beginning of 1978 Carol Bellamy resigned her N.Y. Senate seat to become N.Y.C. Council President.

³These figures were taken from Newsvane 6 (November 1977). Newsvane is published regularly by the Department of State of New York. The number of biographical listings for women holding local office in New York in the body of this book varies from the Newsvane figures due to inaccuracies in original lists received from the state of New York.

⁴At the beginning of 1978 Betty Roberts was appointed to the judiciary in Oregon and resigned her Senate seat.
